Unless the LORD builds the house, the builders labor in vain. Psalm 127:1

Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday, building six baskets (walls) for one and a half new houses.

Thursday morning: carrying the baskets through the streets of Grand Goave to the work site.

Thursday morning: Putting stucco over the rubble walls.

Thursday afternoon: visiting a finished home which was begun in March by a team from Living Word

Baptist Church and our missions chair,
Diane Rexrode .

Friday morning: meeting for prayer with a group of Haitian pastors in their “field of dreams” where they hope to build a church, an orphanage, a school, an assisted living facility, and a primary care medical facility

Friday night:
visiting an orphanage to deliver shoes
